Sanford Lund

Services for Sanford Lund, 76, of 1109 3rd Ave. SE, Aberdeen, a retired farmer of the Bath and Groton areas, were held Saturday morning, Aug. 9, in the Scandinavia Lutheran Church in Gem Township. The Rev. Fred M. Rosin Jr. of Warner officiated.

Jerauld Holmes, accompanied by Mrs. Holmes, sang two solos. The ushers were Clarence Swenson and Howard Swenson. Interment was in the Scandinavia Lutheran Cemetery in Gem Township.

Pall bearers, all nephews of Mr. Lund, were Everett Lund of Box Elder; Irvin Swenson of Halliday, N. D.; Ernest Swenson and Laverne Swenson of Bath; M. E. Hurstad and Marlo Swenson of Aberdeen.

Mr. Lund died unexpectedly last Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 6, of a heart attack.

Mr. Lund was born Sept. 27, 1892, in Gem Township and was in military service in World War I. Later he was in road construction work in the Dakotas and Minnesota and on March 25, 1934, he married Emma Johnson in Gem township.

The couple farmed first near Bath, in 1941 moved to a farm near Groton. In 1959 they retired from active operation of the farm and moved to Aberdeen two years ago.

Mr. Lund is survived by his widow and two brothers, Iver Swenson, Aberdeen and Melvin Lund, Box Elder. Four brothers and one sister preceded him in death.

Relatives from away to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Alph Johnson, Moline, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Johnson, Howard, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Bradbury, Wheelock, N. D.; Melvin and Everett Lund, Box Elder, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Swenson, Halliday, N. D. and Mrs. Ben Sommers, St. Paul, Minn.
